Property Description

Thomas Brown Estates are delighted to present this deceptively spacious three bedroom end of terrace home, superbly situated in a highly sought after central location. The property is within easy walking distance of Perry Hall Primary School, Poverest Park, Orpington High Street and Orpington station, making it an ideal purchase for families and commuters alike.

The well-appointed accommodation comprises an entrance porch leading to a welcoming hallway that opens into the lounge. The dining room leads into a recently fitted modern kitchen, creating an excellent space for everyday living and entertaining. The ground floor further benefits from a bathroom featuring both a separate bath and shower, along with a useful utility area. To the first floor, there are three bedrooms.

Externally, the property boasts a well-maintained rear garden, perfect for entertaining and alfresco dining. A stand-out feature is the impressive 16'10 x 9'8 home office/games room, offering versatile additional space ideal for remote working or leisure use. To the front, there is convenient on-road parking.

Perry Hall Road is perfectly positioned for access to well-regarded local schools, parks, bus routes, the High Street and the mainline station. Early internal viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the space, quality and prime location on offer.
